

No.3.1.2: Disciplinary Policy and Procedure

Policy Context

This policy relates to:
Registration Manager	Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA)
Conditions of Registration	VET Quality Framework (VQF)
Codes and Standards	ESOS National Code 2018 – Standard: 6.9.1; 6.9.3; 8.8.1; 8.9.1;
Legislation or other requirements	National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2012

Purpose

This policy has been developed to ensure appropriate disciplinary actions and the process and responsibilities for implementation. While this policy highlights the consequences of misbehaviour and breach of code of conduct, Waratah Polytechnic will report to the relevant authorities of any criminal acts committed by its students.

Objective

Waratah Polytechnic will ensure that there is a process for monitoring student's conduct, identifying students who are displaying any form of misconduct as defined in this policy or are not complying with Waratah Polytechnic's Code of Conduct and their contractual obligations.

Scope

This policy will apply to all current, prospective and previous students, staff and other Waratah Polytechnic stakeholders.

Procedures

	Description	Responsibility
1.	Requirements / Process:	PEO
	 All students enrolled at Waratah Polytechnic are, at all times, required to comply with Waratah Polytechnic's Code of Conduct. Where behaviour is deemed to be improper or inappropriate as outlined below, Waratah Polytechnic will act in accordance with the Student Disciplinary Policy described below. Waratah Polytechnic offers support services to students who need assistance to achieve their education goals including academic support and re-sitting assessments. 	RTO Manager Student Support officer Trainer and Assessors
	• The very important requirement amongst these is to attend classes. ALL students are expected to attend class at the scheduled times. For International Students, unsatisfactory attendance may have negative implications for their Student Visa see Monitoring Student	TECHNIC
	 Attendance Policy. Where the student is failing to meet the course progress requirements, then the Course Progress Policy will be applied including the development and monitoring of an intervention plan. For international students, unsatisfactory course progress may have negative implications for their student visa. 	S: 04035A
	• Any student who has been found to willingly or accidentally activate fire or security alarms which results in the calling out of emergency services such as the fire department, police, ambulance or any other emergency service will be liable for whatever costs are incurred by their actions. Furthermore, students may be prosecuted under State or Federal laws in relation to their actions. Improper or inappropriate behaviour may result in an investigation into the suspension of enrolment. Serious misconduct is deemed to be behaviour that is illegal, wilful or premeditated. This behaviour can result in immediate suspension pending investigation and may lead to expulsion. For international students, misconduct may have serious negative implications for their student visa, as Waratah Polytechnic may report them to the Department of Human Affairs (DOHA) authorities. Misconduct of a criminal nature will be reported to the appropriate authority

If the incident is serious misconduct, the SSO will refer the matter to the RTO Manager who will meet with the student to discuss the actions and the consequences.
•	The RTO Manager will meet with the SSOs to review the incident and establish whether or not the incident is serious misconduct and to determine actions to be taken including the consequences for the student.
•	All meetings are to be formally recorded on a Student Interview Form and recorded on the Student file.	7
•	Following the meeting, a formal letter must be sent to the student identifying the issue and actions. This letter is to include the right to access the Staff that develop course materials are expected to design assessments that do not lend themselves to plagiarism, copying or collusion.

8	Detection of Plagiarism	PEO
	 Staff is expected to actively plan to detect plagiarism. 	RTO Manager
	• If a staff member, when assessing a	Student Support officer
	piece of work, suspects plagiarism they must subject the piece of work to a test or undertake sufficient research to satisfy themselves of the extent of the plagiarism (if any).	Trainer and Assessors
	 Many tools exist on the Internet to help detect plagiarism.
	 Plagiarism can vary in scale from incorrect referencing to blatant copying of large chunks of information.
	• Staff will have to exercise judgment in how to deal with each incident
	• Comments may be made in terms of the assessment (minor infringement) and a	TECHNIC
	reminder of how to reference correctly
	 A formal warning may be issued and the student requiring them to be re- assessed 	S: 04035A
9	Detection of Cheating	PEO
	 Staff will need to have evidence of cheating, for example, by observation in 	RTO Manager
	closed book test, by comparison of two students work or through use of an	Student Support officer
	appropriate tool.	Trainer and Assessors
	 The offending student should immediately be made aware that the assessor knows and if it is a test

Continuous Improvement

A summary of all Disciplinary related matters will be presented as a part of the Continuous Improvement Policy and Procedure at the Management Meeting for review. The purpose of this is to ensure that management becomes aware of:

- repeat issues
- common threads relating to the general management and or safety of the staff and students and the services being provided.
- (when viewed collectively) any general adverse trend that needs correcting.

Confidentiality and Privacy Statement

Waratah Polytechnic values and is committed to protecting the privacy of its staff and stakeholders. Stakeholders can get more information, by contacting us on our contact us email.

Publication

This policy once approved, will be available to all students and staff by accessing Waratah Polytechnic Intranet or on request. This policy will also be available through Waratah Polytechnic's website as well.

This policy and procedure will form part of the information distributed and communicated during staff orientation.
